

Figure 2.9.1: The south votes out too. Leave majority in South of England

The South votes out

While most media reports have focussed on the North of England, The higher population of the South actually cast more votes for leave.

